

LUCY BURNS

Partner

Lucy Burns is a Partner at Billingsley Company in Dallas. Lucy is responsible for the company's 5.5 million square foot office portfolio. Her responsibilities include portfolio strategy, construction, marketing, management and finance. Lucy has focused on creating communities that deliver outstanding amenities and quality service to companies of all sizes.

Lucy began her career in New York at Lehman Brothers followed by roles with Groupe Arnault in New York and the Ratkovich Company in Los Angeles. Lucy received her undergraduate degree from Davidson College and her graduate degree from Columbia University. She serves on the Hockaday Board of Trustees, the Board of the Dallas Museum of Art, the Board of the Dallas Regional Chamber, the Dallas Advisory Board of Amegy Bank and the Dallas Advisory Board for the Trust for Public Land. Lucy lives in Dallas with her husband and four children.